- C. The Licensing Board may, by majority vote, at any time after any license has been issued under this ordinance, revoke the same upon finding that such circus, carnival, show, concert, race track, exhibition, amusement, or performance is in violation of conditions set or is acting to the detriment of the good order of the Town or public moral and decency, or continues a safety, fire, health or sanitation hazard, or tends to disturb the peace and general welfare of the Town.
